WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

These courses are foundation level courses and will be particularly relevant to anyone who finds themselves involved in dealing with their client's Guernsey tax affairs. The courses are a broad and basic introduction to Guernsey tax and are likely to be too basic for anyone who is already well informed in Guernsey tax or who has attended these courses in recent years. It will be particularly appropriate for those who have limited prior knowledge with regard to Guernsey tax, for example individuals who have little tax knowledge, or those who have studied other tax regimes but who are new to the Guernsey tax regime, or those who have dealt with Guernsey tax in the past and now wish to re-familiarise themselves with the system.

OBJECTIVES

To cover the main principles and rules governing the Guernsey taxation of individuals, companies and certain other entities.

THE PRESENTER

WILL MORGAN is a qualified accountant and consultant working with clients in Guernsey, Jersey, Dublin and the UK. He founded Offshore in 2007 along with partner John Richardson to provide accounting and consulting solutions to numerous regulated and commercial clients in a wide variety of industries. Also, a competent lecturer providing industry training at the GTA on accounting, tax and trusts for both STEP and CDP regulatory bodies, Will combines strong technical skills with the ability to explain complex solutions in a format which clients can easily assimilate.
