Invites you to a Lunchtime Presentation on 29 September 2020

Speaker: Adam Knight, Senior Manager, EY

Subject: Revised Ethical Standards

Venue: Via Zoom

Time: 12.15pm

Presenter

Adam is a Senior Manager at EY Guernsey and has spent the last eleven years, delivering statutory audits for private equity and real estate funds. The listed vehicles in this space have given Adam exposure to US and International Accounting and Auditing Standards as well as the Ethical Standard which we now find ourselves adopting. When Adam is not thinking about the Ethical Standard, he enjoys cycling or sailing around the Island.

Brief Synopsis of Presentation:

The lecture will be a whistle-stop tour covering the new Ethical Standard and briefly the changes to the Crown Dependencies' Audit Rules which alter the assessment of 'Overseas' London listings. For auditors, there are restrictions on what they can sell and for industry, a restriction in their choice of service providers for audit or non-audit services. If time allows, Adam will touch on whether this will achieve its objectives.
