Guernsey Society of Chartered and Certified Accountants

Invites you to a Lunchtime Presentation on Thursday 26 April 2018

- Speakers: Tony Corbin and Will Woodruff, PwC
- Subject: FinTech
- Venue: Harry Bound Room, Les Cotils Conference Centre
- Time: Light sandwich lunch at 12.15 pm lecture starts at 12.30 pm (ends at 13.30 pm approx)

Tony Corbin

Tony is a director at PwC in Guernsey with over 12 years of PwC experience, having also worked in the PwC Sydney firm. Tony has worked on both audit and advisory services across a variety of global asset management clients but specialises in direct lending funds and, given his background in Computer Science, is passionate about the increasing opportunities in FinTech and their impact on the financial services industry. He is also a member of the Guernsey Chamber of Commerce's Finance, Legal and Tax Sub-Group.

Will Woodruff

Will is a manager at PwC in Guernsey. He is a chartered accountant and specialises in auditing alternative investment funds. Will is member of the Technology and Innovation group at PwC and as such is actively involved in Blockchain, Fintech, and P2P lending. His background in Physics helps to break down the complex and mathematical nature of these new technologies into understandable ideas that avoid over simplification.

Brief Synopsis of Presentation

This presentation will explore what FinTech is and how it will impact on our future. Will and Tony will explore the different types of FinTech which exists now and those which are likely to make a large impact over the coming years. They will discuss the impact of Blockchain and cryptocurrencies and other potential applications for the exciting new technology.
